

Inventory Selections

New Subscription Information

We're starting the New Year at New England Rare Coin Galleries with some important news. Beginning with this issue, Inventory Selections is being offered on a subscription basis. Single copies will cost $1 and a year's subscription (12 issues) will be available at the special discount price of $10.

However, present Inventory Selections readers need not be concerned that their issues of New England's catalog will suddenly stop coming. All collectors currently on our mailing list will continue to receive Inventory Selections free over the next several months. (The actual number of months will be determined on an individual basis.) If, during that time, you purchase $150 or more from New England, your subscription will automatically be renewed for a full year. If you purchase $275 or more, your subscription will be renewed for two years. You can see that most New England customers will never have to spend anything extra to continue to receive Inventory Selections.

If you choose not to purchase from New England during that time, you can still receive our monthly catalog free. Two months prior to the expiration date of your subscription, we'll notify you. At that time, you may renew your subscription at the rates mentioned above. If you renew for a full year and if, during that year, you purchase at least $150 from our inventory, we'll return your $10 subscription fee. (This offer also applies to new subscribers. If you have a friend who'd like to subscribe to our monthly catalog, let him know that a purchase of $150 or more entitles him to a full subscription refund.)

With these changes, New England Rare Coin Galleries and Inventory Selections will be able to serve you better than ever in the coming months. Beginning with this issue, you'll be able to view some of our choicest offerings in full color. We'll be sending you free Selections Supplements as they're printed. And, as always, Inventory Selections subscribers are eligible to take advantage of New England's full line of programs and services.

If there are any other features or improvements you'd like to see in Inventory Selections, drop us a line. We'd like our catalog to fulfill as many of your collecting needs as possible.

Market Report

by Tim LaPointe

Although it's a bit early to make year-end predictions, present market trends indicate that 1979 will be another heavily active numismatic year. Trading this month has been fast-paced. At the F.U.N. Show, held January 4-7 in Miami Beach, Florida, several exceptionally rare and valuable coins exchanged hands. An 1855 Gold Dollar (Type Two) in Gem BU condition, which catalogs at $1,900 in UNC condition, traded at approximately $10,000. Other notable items traded at the show include an 1827 Quarter Eagle in Gem BU, an 1855-O Double Eagle in AU (a rarely seen date that often commands premium prices) and a 1909/8 St. Gaudens Double Eagle in Superb condition. New England was pleased to sell two very rare California Small Denomination Gold Pieces at the show. Both coins were the Half Dollar Round with Eagle Reverse Variety. Because of their extreme rarity, we were offered record prices for both coins.

On the over-all market, gold has risen to the mid-$220's and seems to be stable for the time being. As usual, this rise has led to an increase in the price of bullion-related gold coins such as Krugerrands, Mexican Pesos and 100 Coronas. Rare gold coins are also being actively sought — as illustrated by our experiences at the F.U.N. Show.

However, silver is the highlight metal of this month. Silver bullion has once again broken the $6 per ounce mark. This is probably attributable to the drop in the value of the dollar overseas (which was, in turn, brought about by OPEC's decision to raise crude oil prices). As a result, the silver dollar market is at an all-time high — especially Peace Dollars. Gem silver coins of all types are becoming extremely difficult to locate. Most dealers report that keeping any choice silver in stock has been hard to do this month. However, most silver dollars are available if collectors are willing to pay premium prices. And apparently, some collectors are doing just that. A Gem P-L 1901-S Morgan Dollar was recently reported sold for approximately $3,000.

The only difficulty we foresee in 1979 is in finding enough Gem coins to purchase. The extremely high demand for Gems has pushed prices well above established wholesale levels. New England plans to redouble its efforts to keep Gems in stock.

A Happy New Year and much prosperity in the months ahead!

EARLY QUARTER EAGLES

1802, CH. UNC(60/65). Full blazing mint frost, with a hint of P-L surface on the reverse. Only the characteristic slight weakness of strike in the centers keep us from calling this beautiful coin a gem. Absolutely NO adjustment marks. Breen #4 which is considered by some to be an overdate. (If you follow this particular school of thought, this coin is approximately 3 times rarer than the 1802/1 overdate varieties.) Regardless of this, all early quarter eagles are extremely rare and underrated in choice mint state. This is an excessively rare coin, in exceptional condition. It would grace the very finest collection.	17,500.00

Why would anyone call the Flying Eagle Cent controversial? I read a news story a few months back about a local coin collector here and he referred to a coin he had as "the controversial Flying Eagle Cent." Please give me some specifics — L.C., Springfield, MA

At the time it was issued, virtually everything about the Flying Eagle Cent became controversial. Some critics were alarmed that the cent's diameter had been reduced from 27.5 millimeters to 19. This, they feared, would make the cent easily swallowed by infants. Others criticized James B. Longacre's design, claiming that the eagle on the coin's obverse resembled "a table napkin, or a pen wiper got up for sale at a fancy fair." In fact, the Albany Journal went so far as to attack the coin's color, claiming it looked like "copper counterfeiting pinchbeck (a yellow alloy used in cheap, imitation gold jewelry) and blushing at being caught in the cheat."

Today, the formerly controversial size of the Flying Eagle Cent is controversial no longer. Modern Lincoln Cents are also 19 millimeters in diameter. Nor did the coin's "table napkin" design hurt Longacre's career. Longacre went on to design the Indian Head Cent, Two Cent Piece, Three Cent Nickel, Shield Nickel and Liberty Head Double Eagle (to name only a few). In fact, many collectors admire the unique composition of Longacre's Flying Eagle engraving.

One of the reasons I'm writing is that [one of your competitor's] grading is awful. I bought an UNC-60 1859-C Gold Dollar from [this competitor] and it wasn't UNC-60 at all. The UNC-60 coins I've bought from you are much better. I can't understand the discrepancies between dealers' grades. — D.B., New York, NY

The professional numismatic community would love to do away with grading discrepancies between dealers. In fact, this is why New England proposed altering its grading terminology last month. We feel that standardizing the language of grading is an important first step in standardizing the actual grading process. And, if more numismatic firms convert to ANA terminology, we're sure that the degree of grading discrepancies between dealers will rapidly diminish.

However, we don't foresee grading standards ever becoming completely uniform throughout the industry. Rare coin dealers are, after all, human — and because humans inevitably differ in their experience, opinions and expertise, dealer grading standards will probably always vary to some extent.

This is why we ask that you don't judge our competition too harshly — especially where an 1859-C Gold Dollar is concerned. The 1859-C (along with its "cousin," the 1857-C), is notorious for being poorly struck. Apparently, this date was minted with extremely bad planchets. Even the best 1859-C's appear worn and uneven. This is why many numismatists grade 1859-C's primarily according to the degree of their lustre and quality of their surfaces. A weak strike on an 1859-C is considered a "given." Therefore, using an 1859-C as a "grading test" may be an unfair way of judging a dealer's expertise — especially if you're comparing your UNC-60 1859-C to an UNC-60 of another date or type where strike is an important grading factor.

I can remember reading somewhere that the Panama-Pacific Quarter Eagle Commemorative was designed by a woman. But a friend of mine showed me a reference where it said that Charles Barber designed it. Please check on this and give me the correct information. — T.W., Cleveland, OH

The woman designer you read about in connection with the 1915-S Panama-Pacific Gold Commemorative was probably Evelyn Beatrice Longman. Originally, Miss Longman was designated as the coin's designer. However, she became seriously ill before she could complete her work. The task of designing the 1915-S thus fell into the hands of Charles E. Barber (who was, at the time, Chief Engraver of the United States Mint).

Barber's design for the 1915-S is particularly interesting due to the designer's extensive use of symbolism. As you know, the Panama-Pacific Commemoratives were struck in honor of the Panama Canal's opening. Barber decided to commemorate this event through the use of mythological characters and symbols. This is why his coin's obverse depicts Columbia riding a "hippocampus" (a mythological beast with the head of a horse and tail of a fish). Columbia and the hippocampus represent commerce making its way down the canal. The "caduceus" Columbia holds (a familiar symbol of medicine) represents the constant battle against yellow fever that was fought in order to keep the canal workers alive during the waterway's construction.

I saw a Colonial in your last catalog marked: "Washington, Liberty & Security 1/2 D. Asylum Edge." Could you tell me its date? You left that out. What's an "Asylum Edge?" — H.H., Rochester, NY

The Washington Colonial you're referring to is undated (which is why there is no date for the coin listed in Inventory Selections). However, numismatic historians estimate its issue date as 1795. The "Asylum Edge" refers to the motto, "An Asylum for the Oppressed of All Nations" which is stamped on the coin's edge.

An acquaintance of mine just offered me an 1878-P Morgan Silver Dollar which he says is uncirculated, but the coin looks worn to me. He said it was just struck from "overpolished" dies. Have you ever heard of this? — J.B., Wyoming, RI

Yes, we have. During the minting process, dies are sometimes "basined" (i.e. their fields are polished). The purpose of basining is to repair any clash marks, cracks or breaks that result from repeated use of the die. However, too much basining will not only remove the die's imperfections but parts of the die's design as well. Dies with noticeable parts of their design missing through too much basining are called "overpolished dies." Although coins made from these dies look worn, it is the dies themselves which have really experienced wear.

Overpolished dies in the Morgan series were most common during 1878, so your friend's assessment of the coin's appearance is probably accurate (although we'd have to see the coin to be sure). Common effects of overpolishing in Morgans include leaves that seem disconnected from the wreath on the coin's reverse, missing leaves and narrow leaves. More extreme overpolishing sometimes resulted in missing portions of the eagle's wings on the coin's reverse, and missing portions of Liberty's neck, nose and/or hair on the obverse.

Each contains high-quality gold specimens — not "extras" or "over-stocked" items. And each shines with that special lustre of finely preserved gold.

Desirability: Because properly balanced gold type sets are extremely difficult for the average collector to assemble, sets of this sort have always been in high demand. In fact, over the last 10 years, gold type sets have out-appreciated gold bullion by approximately 5% per year. And New England's gold type sets are particularly desirable — because they're backed by our special authenticity, grading and repurchase guarantees.

Value: Normally, New England type sets cost from $3,620 to $7,925. But Inventory Selections readers can now purchase them for only $3,300 to $6,750. Grading Survey Results

Last month, Inventory Selections took a survey of its readers to determine whether New England should adopt ANA grading terminology. The results of that survey are now in. A full 94% of the readers responding were in favor of New England adopting ANA terminology. And many of those readers expressed the hope that other rare coin dealers will soon follow suit. In the words of one New England collector, "By all means, let's all speak the same language."

Right now, New England's staff is busily making preparations for the changeover. Our computers are being reprogrammed. Our coin flips are being re-labeled. If all goes as planned, ANA grading terminology will be used in our next issue of Inventory Selections.

Some of our readers' comments during the survey were quite interesting. For example, one reader pointed out a benefit of the ANA system that we hadn't considered. He wrote that if all dealers were to adopt ANA terms, collectors would have greater influence on industry grading. If collectors found that certain grades were unnecessary, or that more grades were needed, they could express those opinions directly to the ANA. The ANA, in responding to those opinions, could then change its system and, in the process, change the system of every dealer in the country. In other words, the ANA would soon become a convenient "clearing house" for collector complaints and suggestions about industry grading.

A few readers expressed their concern that if New England changes its terminology, its grading standards may suffer. Others were concerned that our verbal descriptions of coins might be forgotten. We'd like to put those concerns to rest. As we mentioned last month, our standards for grading will not be affected by this changeover. New England takes extreme pride in having the most conservative grading standards to be found in the industry. We have no intention of easing those standards. Nor do we intend to eliminate our verbal descriptions of particularly choice or interesting coins. This is a changeover in terminology only.

Finally, some readers wondered why New England felt that grades of 53, 58, 63 and 67 were necessary. The answer has to do with the trade-off between simplifying our terminology and over-simplifying it. Without these grades, we feel that our grading would lose some of its accuracy. If, in using the ANA system, we find that these grades aren't justified, we'll eliminate them. At this point, however, our best judgement and experience tells us that foregoing them would do a disservice to our customers.

New England would like to thank all of our customers who took the time to complete our survey card. Once we begin using the new terminology, we invite you to keep us posted on how you feel it's working out.

ANA Poster Design Revealed

As many of you know, New England Rare Coin Auctions has been selected to conduct this year's American Numismatic Association Auction in St. Louis (July 28-August 3). To commemorate that event, NERCA President Lee J. Bellisario commissioned Susan Browne Hansen, well-known Boston and New York watercolorist, to design a full-color ANA Auction Poster.

We're happy to announce that work on the poster is now completed — and we couldn't be more pleased with the results. Ms. Hansen has created a beautiful watercolor rendition of St. Louis's skyline at sunset, framed by the famous Gateway Arch. Above and to the right of the rendering, the words "1979 ANA Auction" have been executed in navy blue, while the words "St. Louis" and "New England Rare Coin Auctions" form the poster's base. All in all, we feel the work captures the prestige and excitement of this important event perfectly.

To protect the beauty of Ms. Hansen's design, New England has chosen to print the rendering in its full 18½" by 2' size. Additionally, the poster's heavy-duty, gloss-coat stock has been selected by the artist herself.

Ms. Hansen will also be selecting a special group of the 500 finest posters to come off the press. These will be numbered and signed by the artist and, when ready, they will be offered for $25 each. Unsigned posters will cost $10. (Postage and handling costs for both versions will be paid by New England Rare Coin Auctions.)

Only a limited number of 1979 ANA Posters will be issued, so we invite you to reserve yours early. Send your check or money order to: ANA Poster, New England Rare Coin Auctions, P.O. Box 1776, Boston, MA 02105. Please indicate the quantity and type of each poster ordered.

Designer Susan Browne Hansen and NERCA President Lee J. Bellisario inspect the newly completed 1979 ANA Auction Poster.

1871, BU(60). Full strike. Very scarce, particularly in mint condition. In fact, UNC examples are nearly as rare as proofs.	895.00

1876-S, CH. BU(60/65). Akers writes: "The 1876-S has the lowest mintage of any S mint quarter eagle except the extremely rare 1854-S. It is very rare in any condition and most known specimens are weakly struck. The examples that I have seen of the 1876-S have had the tiny narrow lump on Liberty's jaw that is seen on the business strikes of 1876. Full mint state specimens of this date are extremely rare and I have seen no more than two or three. Because they are invariably weakly struck, 1876-S quarter eagles are difficult to grade. Rather than looking at the usual 'high points' for wear, one must examine instead the quality of the surfaces and the mint lustre to accurately determine a grade." Priced realistically at. . . . 1,500.00

EARLY HALF EAGLES

1795 SM. EAGLE, EF-AU(45). Breen #6-G, R-4. Lustrous and well struck with about 80% of the eagle's breast feathers visible. One very faint hairline scratch is visible on the obverse, and a few tiny edge nicks are mentioned for accuracy's sake. No adjustment marks or any other defects. A lovely coin which would certainly be graded AU or better by most sellers. Always in great demand..... 6,750.00

Fully blazing proof surfaces, even between the lines of the shield. Delicate original light copper toning. Breen lists only 2 other proofs known of this variety and we doubt that more than half a dozen proofs exist of any variety of this date. The only other proof of this type we have ever seen was an 1825/1 (3 known) which traded hands in 1973 for $75,000, and for which an offer of $125,000 was subsequently refused. This magnificent coin, virtually identical in condition, and nearly as rare, is available at a very reasonable price. (See color photo.)..... $65,000.00

LIBERTY HEAD HALF EAGLES

1842 LARGE LETTERS, CH. BU(60/65). Full strike. Satin-like and frosty lustre. A rare and underrated date. Breen writes: "Large reverse letters. Comprises the 14,896 of the autumn deliveries plus probably the majority of the 12,862 of the April delivery. Only one variety noticed, although probably two pairs of dies were used. I do not recall any mint state ones, though there are several EF's in numismatic circulation. Scarce." EARLY EAGLES

1796, CH. BU(60/65). Blazing semi-P-L surfaces. An amazing strike with incredible feather detail on the reverse. No adjustment marks. A couple of tiny edge marks on the reverse, but otherwise GEM quality. Breen writes: "R-5 and fairly high in that level. There are several (possibly 5 to 8) almost undistinguishable prooflike uncirculated specimens in numismatic circulation, together with possibly 30 to 40 in the VF to AU range. I can well believe that the total surviving is 60 to 70. This date is much rarer than 1795 though seldom appreciated as such. The difference in popularity is naturally to be attributed to 1795's being the initial year of issue. The prooflike specimens, altogether different in appearance from the more frosty ones, may well have been presentation pieces of some kind on the occasion of Tennessee's admission. True proofs were not struck, so far as I know, as one of these coins appear to have been given the repeated blows from the press to bring up the designs in the usual clarity of proofs." A fantastic coin, worthy of the finest collection. Priced realistically at 35,000.00

1865-S, EF-AU(45). Lustrous. A rare coin. Breen writes: "Usually found in VG to Fine when available at all, which is very seldom. Probably R-6." 1,950.00

1873-S, BORDERLINE UNC(55/60). Fully struck and fully lustrous. A virtual "Choice UNC" coin. Probably the finest known example of this rarity. Breen knew of none even in full EF. An auction record of $1600 exists for this date in AU-50 condition, and we can locate no other high grade specimen sold in recent years. Realistically priced at 2,750.00

1874, BU(60) SEMI-P-L. Full strike. Really very scarce in mint state in spite of its modest price listings..... 650.00

1876-CC, CH. AU(50/55). Lustrous and original. Well struck for the date, although not fully struck up in the centers as always. A great rarity in all grades and especially in high grades. This is confirmed by Breen, who writes in his monograph: "Four specimens seen in recent years, three being VF and one slightly lower in grade (the Davis-Graves piece); no report of a better one. There may be as many around as twenty but they probably are in the same grade range." Currently in frantic demand, as its rarity is now becoming recognized. 2,600.00

Now there's a new volume of the other great coin reference.

Volume II of the "New England Auction Summary" is out!

In the recent past, smart bidders, consignors and investors have used the New England Auction Summary as an indispensable reference for tracking rare coin trends in the influential auction market. Volume I of the Auction Summary recorded comparative market data for New England auctions from November, 1975 through March, 1978. Now the new Volume II records rare coin trends at all 4 New England auctions throughout the landmark year of 1978.

What's in the "Auction Summary?"

Each annual Auction Summary lists by denomination and date coins sold at New England auctions. Within each date and mint mark, coins are ranked by condition, with sale dates and actual prices realized. This complete record of the year's influential New England auctions is a useful summary... and a tremendous aid in estimating what your coins might bring at auction!

How is the "Auction Summary" used?

The Summary gives a potential consignor or bidder a thumbnail sketch of a particular type or series of U.S. and foreign coins by condition. As a reference, the Summary is meant to be used — with specially designed, easy-to-read listings for instant reference. And the Summary's streamlined size fits conveniently in Red Book or auction catalog.

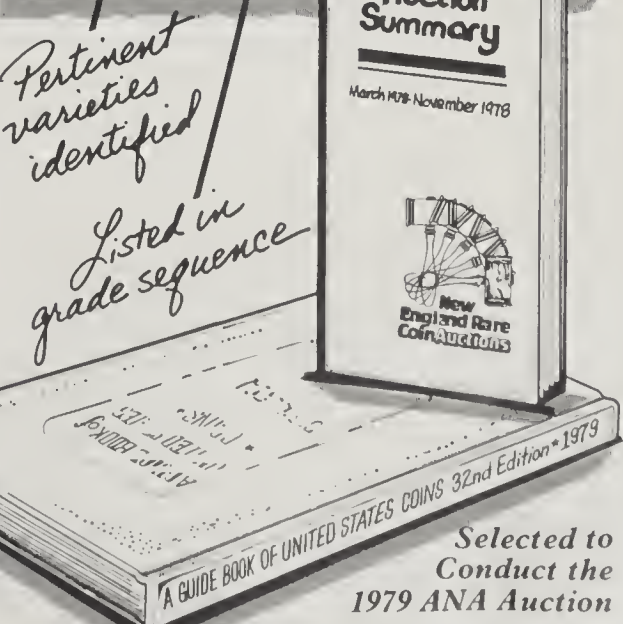

Why not just a list of Prices Realized?

A list of Prices Realized provides an adequate record of individual coins within a particular auction. But only the New England Auction Summary gives a comprehensive

Our Comprehensive Policies & Services:

1. Guarantees

☐ Grading

We guarantee that coins purchased from us are graded correctly and will meet our high standards whenever you decide to sell them. Further, we guarantee to purchase these coins at the same grade as they were when sold. If you prefer to sell your collection through auction, New England Rare Coin Auctions will catalog your coins according to the grade at which you purchased them.

Our grading system is patterned after Dr. Sheldon's quantitative scale. Developed to grade Large Cents, his system has been almost universally adopted in recent years. It is now used to describe all denominations and series from Colonials to Pioneer Gold. The numbers used in this system are:

Poor.....	1
Fair	2
About Good.....	3
Good	4,6
Very Good	8,10
Fine	12,15
Very Fine.....	20,25,30,35
Extremely Fine	40,45
About Uncirculated	50,55
Borderline Uncirculated	55/60
Uncirculated	60
Choice Uncirculated	60/65
Gem Uncirculated	65
Superb Uncirculated	65/70

☐ Authenticity

We further guarantee the authenticity of all coins listed. As proof of our certainty that no counterfeit or altered coin can escape our attention, we guarantee to refund the full purchase price plus 10% interest per year on any non-authentic coin acquired from NERCG.

☐ Value

Compare our value, selection, grading, and prices with other sellers. If, for any reason, you are not satisfied, return your coins WITHIN 30 DAYS from the date you received them for a full refund or replacement.

☐ You have it in writing

These guarantees are issued in writing with all items purchased, and endorsed by two professional numismatists who review your order. Photographs are available upon request for all coins purchased with a value of $1,000 or more.

2. Expertise

Our staff includes some of the most knowledgeable numismatists in America. We are often sought by government agencies, museums and other coin dealers for advice on authenticity and value. By attending virtually every major coin show and auction, and constantly monitoring dealer teletype circuits, we stay on top of the coin market better than anyone else.

3. Selection

Our multi-million dollar inventory of rare coins is one of the nation's largest and most comprehensive. In addition, our staff examines several million dollars' worth of coins each week to bring our customers the very best values. New purchases are made available for sale as soon as they are cataloged.
